Five Acres Wooded Shoreline Donated To TVA On Barkley

Five acres of wooded shoreline on the western shore of Lake Barkley have been donated to the Tennessee Valley Authority for inclusion in the Land Between the Lakes outdoor recreation area, TVA said today.

The land was given by the children of the late James Flinn and Ethelene North Flinn as a permanent memorial to their parents. It is a part of the old Ramsey property in the area.

TVA said the land includes a high point that commands a view of several miles of Lake Barkley shoreline. "Our present plans call for development of a scenic overlook near the center of the Ramsey land," said Flinn.

The property is being donated to the project by Mr. and Mrs. James T. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Ramsey, Artie Middle Ramsey, Evelyn Ford and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ramsey. Mr. James T. Ramsey is a commissioner of the United States Atomic Energy Commission.

Lions Hear Manager Of SS Office

Guest speaker at the Lion's Club meeting on Tuesday was Charles Whitaker, District Manager of the Social Security Office in Paducah. He spoke on the Medicare Program and some of the problems and needs that have arisen since its inception. He paid tribute to the Blue Cross people and to the hospital administrators and staff personnel in the district whose efforts were largely responsible for the relatively smooth beginning which the program has had.

He indicated that in this district 12.5% of the population is 65 or over and eligible for Medicare. About 3,000 of these live in Calloway County. This is about 30% higher than the national average.

He cited a shortage of hospital beds as the major problem in this district. Seven out of the 12 hospitals found in the region are currently participating in the program. The others are endeavoring to qualify. However, even with the addition of these, more hospital space and facilities will be greatly needed to avoid overcrowding or the turning away of people who need care. A recent census of the district hospitals showed that on an average approximately 35% of those in the hospital were 65 or over.

He indicated that two other services that come under Medicare could aid greatly in relieving the hospital space problem. One is the Nursing Home, several of which are found in this district. The other is the Home-Health Agency, which would provide nursing and therapy services right in the home for those who need care, but do not need hospitalization. Under Medicare individuals could receive up to 200 such home visits a year. No such agencies exist at present in this district and the establishment of such is the greatest need in our region at the present time, he concluded.

Pony League Wins First Of District Play

By Gale Garrison

The Murray Pony League team won the first of the best of three in district play last night by defeating Madisonville 2 to 0.

Murray picked up their runs in the seventh inning, when John Mark Hale led off with a single, and then stole second. The next two batters were out, with the first hitting a fly ball to left field, and the next grounding out to the pitcher. Jimmy Brandon drove a triple into center, scoring Hale. Dwayne Adams struck out, but the catcher let the ball get away from him, and Adams reached first, with Brandon scoring from third. Adams then was out trying to steal.

Madisonville's only threat came in the second when they had a man on second and third with no outs, but pitcher Allan Grogan was able to pitch his way out of the inning.

Allan Grogan pitched the entire game for Murray, striking out 15 Madisonville batters. Jimmy Brandon was behind the plate for Murray. Madisonville's batter was Paul Trover, and Mike Travis, Trover fanned 13 Murray players.

Play will continue tonight at 6:00, with a second game to be played if Murray should lose the first game.

Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

Reading last night about three movies. One of them was a movie called "Haircut." This is a movie about a man getting a haircut. The second one was called "Empire." This one is about a man sleeping. The third was named "Empire." This one consisted of a camera pointed at the Empire State Building.

Now don't ask us what kind of art this is. The Haircut movie was about 30 minutes long and all it consisted of was a man having his hair cut. The Sleep movie just shows a man's head and chest and he is sleeping. It lasts an hour.

The Empire movie is a longer movie and just shows the Empire State Building in New York. No movement at all. Not even anyone opening a window or anything.

There is one out for all of us however. You have to pay to get in to see movies like this and if you do not want to see it you just stay away.

Watkins will be introduced by Dr. Ray Moffett, head of the communications department at Murray State.

WHAT'S GOING ON

by United Press International
Today is Wednesday, July 27, the 203rd day of 1966 with 157 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase.

The morning stars are Mars, Venus and Saturn.

There are no covering stars.

American artist Harrison Fisher was born on this day in 1877.

On this day in history:

In 1818, a race riot broke out on a Chicago bathing beach on Lake Michigan after a Negro boy was allegedly attacked. In the rioting that followed, 38 persons were killed.

In 1863, the Korean conflict ended with the signing of an armistice at Panmunjom. The armistice followed, the longest truce talks in the history of warfare—two years, 17 days and some 575 messages.

In 1864, Britain and Egypt agreed on terms ending the 72-year English occupation of the Suez Canal Zone.

In 1960, Austria became a neutral and independent nation after 17 years of occupation by foreign troops.

A thought for the day — American writer Christopher Morley said: "If you have to keep reminding yourself of a thing, perhaps it isn't so."

It should prove an educational manual for professional beekeepers. Other persons, particularly those interested in historical data, will do doubt find it entertaining.

Beekeepers throughout the State were among the first agricultural groups to establish central organizations. While there have been many changes through the years, today's Kentucky Beekeepers Association is an outgrowth of these early organizations.

A second publication on bees is being prepared, this one to deal mainly with the economic aspects of the beekeeping industry. While beekeeping isn't one of our major industries, nonetheless it offers a great potential as a sideline enterprise.

A great amount of work went in researching data for the publication, and much of the material is being printed in an organized manner for the first time. It is not only informative, but also very interesting.

Opening date for the 1966 Kentucky State Fair is less than a month away, and hundreds of Kentuckians should be making plans to be exhibitors in the various divisions. Moreover, I hope they are making plans to attend one or more days during August 18-27.

Q — Am I taxed on the Reserve pay I get for my two week stint of military duty?

A — Yes, pay for Reserve training is generally fully taxable.

Q — If I sell my home at a profit, will I be taxed on what I make?

A — Profits from the sale of a personal residence are generally tax-free. Under certain conditions, however, the tax on this gain may be postponed until a later year.

This situation occurs when, for instance you buy a new house within a year of the sale of your old home and pay more for the new house than you sold the old one for.

In addition, if you are 65 or older, all or part of the gain realized upon the sale may, if certain conditions are met, be exempt from tax. Further information on this subject may be found in Document No. 5017, Selling Your Home, available free from local IRS offices.

Q — I was just reimbursed by my insurance company for some medical expenses claimed on my 1965 return. Do I have to report this as income on my 1966 return or do I file an amended return for 1965?

A — The reimbursement should be included in income on your 1966 return to the extent you received a tax benefit from it on your 1965 tax. There is no need to file an amended return.

Q — Is it true that a cooperative apartment gives you some of the same tax deductions as owning a home?

A — Yes. Your part of the real estate taxes and interest charges will be a deductible expense. The managers of a particular coop will be able to tell you what these items amount to on a specific apartment.

Income Tax Questions-Answers

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — I held down two jobs and Social Security is withheld by both employers. Is there any way I can stop this withholding one of the jobs?

A — No. The law requires each employer to withhold Social Security on the first $6,800 of wages paid to each employee during the year. If more than the maximum of $277.20 is withheld for Social Security from your combined salaries, you should claim the excess as a credit against your income tax when you file your income tax return next year.

Q — My company is planning to send me to another city on a temporary 3-week assignment. If I have to pay the costs to come home week-ends and my company does not reimburse me, can I deduct this on my income tax?

A — The situation you describe seems to qualify as a temporary assignment. In that case, the law permits you to deduct the traveling costs of returning home week-ends as long as the costs do not exceed what you would have spent for room and board if you had not come home. You may also deduct the travel costs of getting to your new assignment and returning home after it is over if the costs exceed reimbursement from your employer.

Q — Am I taxed on the Reserve pay I get for my two week stint of military duty?

A — Yes, pay for Reserve training is generally fully taxable.

GRAIN OUTLOOK

WASHINGTON 27P — Better economic treatment of farmers and improved weather should give the Russians a better grain harvest this year, the Agriculture Department said today.

New Soviet farm policies undoubtedly will contribute to the upswing, the report said. These include higher prices for farmers, a system of guaranteed wages for collective farm workers and new stress on increasing supplies of fertilizer and machinery.

The department announced Monday that it had brought suit against the Bienville and La Salle parish schools in Louisiana, charging segregated schools and inferior educational opportunities and facilities for Negro children.

WASHINGTON 27P — The Justice Department has filed a total of 61 suits to desegregate schools—mostly in the South—under the provisions of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

The department announced Monday that it had brought suit against the Bienville and La Salle parish schools in Louisiana, charging segregated schools and inferior educational opportunities and facilities for Negro children.

STUDIES KNIFE REPORTEDLY SOLD BY SPECK—A knife reportedly sold to a friend by suspect Richard Speck for a dollar in a saloon a few hours after the mass murders of eight student nurses is examined by Chicago Police Department laboratory technician Louis Vitullo. Lower left is William J. Martin, assistant state attorney assigned to prosecute Speck. Lower right, Dr. William Norcross, medical director of the hospital where Speck is being treated for self-inflicted wounds, tells newsmen the suspect is physically unable to testify at this time.

TONY LEMA, WIFE AMONG FOUR PLANE VICTIMS—Professional golfer "Champagne" Tony Lema, 32, and his wife, Betty (inset) and two other persons were killed when a twin-engine plane crashed and burned on a golf course at Munster, Ind., while trying to make an emergency landing. Firemen are probing the wreckage, still bearing the bodies. The other victims were Dr. George Bard, Kankakee, Ill., and the pilot, Mrs. Doris Mullen.

Hart Stops Flying High And Is Finally Down To Earth Again

By JEFF MEYERS
UPI Sports Writer

Jim Ray Hart, finally getting the stars out of his eyes, is down to earth today.

And thanks to Hart, the San Francisco Giants are again floating above the National League, one game on top of the runner-up Pittsburgh Pirates.

Walking around in a daze since the July 12 All-Star game, Hart appeared a bit star-struck during the classic. Pinch hitting in his first All-Star at bat Hart took three straight strikes and sat down.

He hasn't been the same since. Before the classic Hart batted 21 home runs, 45 RBIs and a .289 batting average. Up to Tuesday, the San Francisco third baseman still had 21 homers, only 52 runs batted in and had lowered his average 17 points on seven hits in 49 at bats.

Out Of Slump

But Hart tore out of an 8-for-16 slump Tuesday, slugging his 22nd homer and driving in four runs as the Giants whipped the Pirates 8-3 in their first place.

San Francisco, owning a 60-40 record, is eight percentage points ahead of the Pirates and 12 points in front of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who won their fifth straight by shattering Philadelphia 2-1 with two runs in the ninth inning.

Elsewhere in the senior circuit, New York ripped Houston 5-4, Cincinnati downed Chicago 9-6 and St. Louis edged Atlanta 4-3.

In the American League, Cleveland topped Baltimore 7-4, Minnesota tripped New York 6-3, Washington clubbed California 6-2, Boston beat Kansas City 8-5 and Detroit slugged Chicago 2-1 in the first game of a doubleheader. The nightcap was rained out.

Issues Two Walks

Steve Blass made the mistake of walking Willie Mays and Willie McCovey in the first inning before Mays walked his homer. Hart drove in his first run of the game with a sacrifice fly in the seventh.

Oscaray Perry, possessing the best winning percentage in the N. L., raised his record to 15-2 in beating Pittsburgh for the fourth time with out a loss. Perry hurled six innings but needed relief help from Bill Henry and Lindy McDaniel.

Al Ferrara's pinch single with out in the ninth inning scored Ron Fairly with Los Angeles' winning run and clinched a two-run rally. Dick Stuart, who homered in the fourth for the Dodgers, led off with a single. John Roseboro singled and Fairly bunt out a run to load the bases. Jim Gilliam singled in a run to tie the score at 3-3.

After a forenoon at the plate, Ferrara batted for winning pitcher Ron Perranoski and sent 54,365 fans home with his liner down the left-field line.

Snaps Tie

Eddie Breoud's sixth-inning single scored Glen Jones from second to snap a 4-4 tie and send the Mets to their sixth straight victory over Houston. New York scored three runs with two out in the third as LARRY ELLIOT doubled in two runs and Jones doubled home one. Bob Show won his eighth game in 17 decisions thanks to the four-inning hitless relief pitching of Rob Gardner.

Mike Shannon slugged a two-run homer in the eighth inning after Hank Aaron had put Atlanta ahead 3-2 with his 36th homer of the campaign. Tim McCarver also hit a home run for the Cards, who

Sky Is Limit Minnesota's Tony Oliva

By CURT BLOCK
UPI Sports Writer

Tony Oliva is on top and the sky's the limit.

The Minnesota rightfielder replaced Baltimore's Russ Snyder as the American League's leading batter Tuesday night with a homer and double that raised his average to .321. He also helped the Twins score their second victory over the New York Yankees in 10 games this season, 6-3.

Oliva has won the batting championship two straight years with averages of .323 and .321, respectively, and is seeking to become the first player since Ty Cobb 1917-1919 to win three in a row.

Tony "O" won't say what he thinks it will take to lead the league or what personal level he can attain. But he points out that last August and September were exceptional months for him and could be again.

"You know what I was hitting at this time last year?" Oliva asked a reporter at Yankee Stadium Tuesday night. "I was hitting about .285. Then the base hits started dropping in all the time and my average really moved."

"Who knows," he goes on. "If that happens again I might get up to .360 or something. Of course, it might go the other way and I might only hit .280."

Elsewhere in the AL, Detroit beat Chicago 3-1 before the second half of the doubleheader was rained out. Cleveland beat Baltimore 7-4, Boston beat Kansas City 8-5, and Washington downed California 6-2.

In the National League, San Francisco moved into first place with an 8-3 victory over Pittsburgh, St. Louis edged Atlanta 4-3, Cincinnati clipped Chicago 9-4, New York nipped Houston 5-4 and Los Angeles beat Philadelphia 3-2.

Dave Boswell pitched seven innings for the Twins and fanned nine Yankees to tie the Washington's Pete Richert for the league's strike out leadership. He left the game in the eighth after being nipped by a pitch on the right shoulder.

Rocky Colavito and Leon Wagner hit two homers apiece and Fred Whitfield slugged one as the Indians blasted first place Baltimore, Orioles starter Steve Barber left the game in the second inning with a sore elbow after serving up Colavito's first hitting blast.

Willie Horton went four-for-four and drove in all three Detroit runs. He doubled home Norm Cash in the fourth and singled in Al Kaline in the sixth and eighth innings. Chicago scored its only run in the fourth when winner Mickey Lolich gave up a single to Tammie Agee and walked the next three batters.

Joe Puyuguet tied two home runs to back Dennis Bennett's first win of the season for the Red Sox. The tall lefty was reactivated July 14 after undergoing an operation on his shoulder in April. George Smith had three hits for Boston and Mike Ryan drove in a pair of runs with a single in the first of Kansas City's lower Lew Krause.

Frank Howard and Ken McMullen drove in two each apiece and Bob Seaver collected three more hits as Washington downed California. Howard's bases loaded single in the third scored two runs and McMullen's triple knocked in two more in the sixth.

whipped Atlanta for the fourth straight game and sent the Braves into eighth place. Al Jackson registered the victory, his 10th against eight setbacks.

Deron Johnson eluded a three-run homer during a four-run rally in the eighth inning for the Reds, who handed Dick Ellsworth his 16th loss. Jim Coker and Tony Perez each belted a homer for Cincinnati while Billy Williams had two and Randy Hundley one for Chicago.

100 miles out.

After leaving Boo and mulling over this momentous issue, we held a consultation with the experts in the office.

The consensus that was reached is that the fellow on the outside goes much farther. The circumference is figured 2 x Pi R square. So the fellow on the inside will go a certain distance and the fellow on the outside will go a certain distance. Square the radius of the big circle, multiply by Pi (3.1416) and multiply by two and you will find that that astronaut will go from here to yonder.

Now we will give Boo an opportunity to survey our findings before we march triumphantly into his drug store. That is, of course, if our mathematics is correct.

If it is incorrect, we will have to drink coffee somewhere else for about a week until he forgives it.

We heard about two women the other day who went through George Washington's home on the Potomac River. After going through the house one of them commented to the other "Did you notice that the entire house is furnished in Early American?"

Somebody said that nothing has been heard from Carlos in about six or eight weeks and ventured the opinion that maybe he was shaving.

Fellow says that any man trying to hide behind a woman's skirts today would have a difficult time.

A campaign is on to stop folks from breaking glass. This includes the stinker who knocked a window out of the back of the Corn-Austin store and two out of the Ledger and Times.

However what we started out to say was that folks should not break glass while on picnics, hunting, etc. because dogs can be severely cut while folks are out hunting.

Broken glass lying in weeds and high grass can be deadly.

As a magazine, taking up the crusade, says "What good is a crusade if a child can't know the thrill of running barefooted — or if a man can't take his dog for a walk?"

Moral: Take those empty bottles, mustard jars and pickle jars back home with you and put them in the trash can.

Over 700 persons signed the register at the booth and many more visited the display during the week.

"We were thrilled and surprised to learn that the booth had been awarded third place," he said. "We wish to thank the Ledger and Times for the generous support and publicity given our association throughout the year and furthermore to express our deep thanks and gratitude to the Jay-Cees for their cooperation and encouragement. Murray and Calloway County can be justly proud of this fine organization and the systematic and orderly manner in which they conduct the county fair."
